

FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

FIRST SUNDAY IN LENT
FEBRUARY 18, 2018 • 11:00 AM

Eduoard Léon Edy-Legrand, Jesus Healing the Blind Man, ca. 1950

THIS IS GOD'S HOUSE. ALL ARE WELCOME.

WELCOME TO FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Whether you are visiting for the first time, or are a longtime member, we are blessed to have you with us.

The cover of this bulletin reads, “This Is God’s House. All Are Welcome.” We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God’s kingdom. We don’t all look or act alike; God knows we don’t all think alike. We don’t all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, we worship together as one.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional (very Presbyterian) ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang. Yet, in our preaching and our prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of the modern world. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

After the service, please stick around. Take a tour of the church. Have a cup of coffee with us. Introduce yourself to one of our clergy. There are tons of opportunities here to feed your soul and expand your spirit. Try one out. You never know—you just might be home!

Scott Black Johnston
Senior Pastor

If You Are New Here

Please fill out the Welcome card you will find in your welcome packet or in your pew. Place the card in the offering plate, hand it to an usher, or drop it off at the Visitors Table (inside the Fifth Avenue entrance). You may also complete the Welcome card online at fapc.org/welcome. The folks at the Visitors Table can provide you with information about our ministries and programs, volunteer opportunities, and the history of this congregation, which has served New York City since 1808. We also invite you on a guided tour of the church, starting from the rear of the Sanctuary shortly after the service.

These May Help During the Service

If you would like a large-print bulletin or a hearing-enhancement device, please ask an usher. We also have illustrated Bibles for children to use during the service. You may return these materials to the rear of the Chapel or Sanctuary after the service.

If You Are in Need of Prayer

Deacons (wearing white stoles) are available to pray with you after the service. Your prayers are confidential unless you request they be shared with our Congregational Care staff. You may also complete a prayer request card (available in the pews and at the entrances) and place it in the offering plate or hand to an usher. You may submit prayer requests online at fapc.org/pray.

Help With Parking

We have a parking arrangement with the garage at 51 W. 56th St. For $16, you may park Monday–Friday from 5 pm –12 am, or anytime until 1 am on Saturday, Sunday and holidays (12 hours maximum). Ask for discount coupons at the 55th Street entrance.

Visit Us During the Week

The Sanctuary, Kirkland Chapel and Columbarium are open seven days a week for prayer and reflection. See the building hours listed on the back of the bulletin.

Worship Resources Online

You will find information about future worship services (including the bulletin for the upcoming Sunday) at fapc.org/worship. Recorded sermons are available at fapc.org/sermons and via podcast on iTunes. This morning’s Prayers of the People can be found at fapc.org/pray.

ANTHEM

God So Loved the World • Bob Chilcott (b. 1955), Text: John 3:16

God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten son that whoso believeth in him,
should not perish but have everlasting life.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Mark 8:22-26

They came to Bethsaida. Some people brought a blind man to him and begged him to touch him. He took the blind man by the hand and led him out of the village; and when he had put saliva on his eyes and laid his hands on him, he asked him, 'Can you see anything?' And the man looked up and said, 'I can see people, but they look like trees, walking.' Then Jesus laid his hands on his eyes again; and he looked intently and his sight was restored, and he saw everything clearly. Then he sent him away to his home, saying, 'Do not even go into the village.'

One: This is the Word of God; for the People of God.

All: Thanks be to God.

SERMON

The Rev. Kate Dunn

“What Do We Know... About Miracles?”

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

from The Brief Statement of Faith, Presbyterian Church (USA)

In a broken and fearful world

the Spirit gives us courage to pray without ceasing, to witness among all peoples to Christ as Lord and Savior,
to unmask idolatries in Church and culture,
to hear the voices of peoples long silenced,
and to work with others for justice, freedom and peace.

In gratitude to God, empowered by the Spirit,

we strive to serve Christ in our daily tasks
and to live holy and joyful lives,
even as we watch for God's new heaven and new earth,
praying, “Come, Lord Jesus!”

With believers in every time and place,

we rejoice that nothing in life or in death
can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Pilgrim Song • Traditional, arr. Ryan Murphy (b. 1971)

My brethren, I have found a land that doth abound with fruit as sweet as honey;

The more I eat, I find, the more I am inclined to shout and sing hosanna.

My soul doth long to go where I may fully know
the glory of my Savior;

And as I pass along I'll sing the Christian song,
I'm going to live forever.

Perhaps you think me wild, or simple as a child;

I am a child of glory;

I am born from above, my soul is filled with love;

I love to tell the story.

My soul doth long to go where I may fully know
the glory of my Savior;

And as I pass along I'll sing the Christian song,
I'm going to live forever.

My soul now sits and sings and practices its wings,
and contemplates the hour
When messenger shall say, "Come quit this house of clay, and with bright angels tower."
My soul doth long to go where I may fully know
the glory of my Savior;
And as I pass along I'll sing the Christian song,
I'm going to live forever.

* BENEDICTION

Please remain in your pew until the conclusion of the Choral Response.

* CHORAL RESPONSE

A Celtic Prayer • Barry Peters, Text: Traditional

May the Christ who walks on wounded feet walk with you on the road.

May the Christ who serves with wounded hands
stretch out your hands to serve.

May the Christ who loves with a wounded heart
open up your hearts to love.

May you see the face of Christ in everyone you meet,
And may everyone you meet see the face of Christ in you. Amen.

POSTLUDE

Fugue in B minor, BWV 544 • J.S. Bach

The ministry of music this morning is offered by:
The Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church Choir
Dr. Ryan Jackson, William S. Perper Director of Music and Fine Arts Ministries
Patrick Kreeger, Associate Organist • Sarah Gilbert, Soprano

WORSHIP NOTES

Johann Sebastian Bach's Prelude and Fugue in B minor, BWV 544, is a profound work in duration, sound and emotion. Composed while Bach was working at the Thomaskirche in Leipzig, this piece gives a glimpse into Bach's more mature compositional style. During Bach's lifetime, musical keys were strongly associated with various moods (or "affects")—everything from joy to sorrow. B minor was considered a melancholic key, and there is some speculation that this work was composed for a funeral. Avoiding overly flashy rhythms, the Prelude is replete with angst-filled dissonances and expressive leaps in the pedal, as if Bach were emphasizing the sullen character of the key. The Fugue, while exuding some trepidation, is noble in stature and explores every possible permutation of its subject in all voices, before a climactic, surprising conclusion offers a glimmer of hope for the future.

Many familiar faces from the congregation are taking part in this provocative presentation, which will be performed free of charge.
