

FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

APRIL 15, 2018 • 11:00 AM

Adam Bradley, Clay in the Potter's Hands, ©2011

THIS IS GOD'S HOUSE. ALL ARE WELCOME.

WELCOME TO FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Whether you are visiting for the first time, or are a longtime member, we are blessed to have you with us.

The cover of this bulletin reads, “This Is God’s House. All Are Welcome.” We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God’s kingdom. We don’t all look or act alike; God knows we don’t all think alike. We don’t all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, we worship together as one.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional (very Presbyterian) ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang. Yet, in our preaching and our prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of the modern world. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

After the service, please stick around. Take a tour of the church. Have a cup of coffee with us. Introduce yourself to one of our clergy. There are tons of opportunities here to feed your soul and expand your spirit. Try one out. You never know—you just might be home!

Scott Black Johnston
Senior Pastor

If You Are New Here

Please fill out the Welcome card you will find in your welcome packet or in your pew. Place the card in the offering plate, hand it to an usher, or drop it off at the Visitors Table (inside the Fifth Avenue entrance). You may also complete the Welcome card online at fapc.org/welcome. The folks at the Visitors Table can provide you with information about our ministries and programs, volunteer opportunities, and the history of this congregation, which has served New York City since 1808. We also invite you on a guided tour of the church, starting from the rear of the Sanctuary shortly after the service.

These May Help During the Service

If you would like a large-print bulletin or a hearing-enhancement device, please ask an usher. You may return the hearing-enhancement device to the rear of the Chapel or Sanctuary after the service.

Welcoming Children

Children are always welcome! The ushers can provide a worship bag or children’s Bible to keep your child engaged. If you need to step out to attend to your child, we invite you to use our Family Room, located at the north end of the Gallery, just outside the Sanctuary (check the map on the back of the bulletin for the location). We also provide childcare for infants and toddlers from 9 am until 12:30 pm, downstairs in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center. Learn more about our Family Ministries at fapc.org/grow.

If You Are in Need of Prayer

Deacons (wearing white stoles) are available to pray with you after the service. Your prayers are confidential unless you request they be shared with our Congregational Care staff. You may also complete a prayer request card (available in the pews and at the entrances) and place it in the offering plate or hand to an usher. You may submit prayer requests online at fapc.org/pray.

Help With Parking

We have a parking arrangement with the garage at 51 W. 56th St. For $16, you may park Monday–Friday from 5 pm –12 am, or anytime until 1 am on Saturday, Sunday and holidays (12 hours maximum). Ask for discount coupons at the 55th Street entrance.

Worship Resources Online

You will find information about future worship services (including the bulletin for the upcoming Sunday) at fapc.org/worship. Recorded sermons are available at fapc.org/sermons and via podcast on iTunes. This morning’s Prayers of the People can be found at fapc.org/pray.

ANTHEM

If Ye Love Me • Thomas Tallis (1505–1585), Text: John 14:15-17

If ye love me, keep my commandments,
And I will pray the Father,
And he shall give you another Comforter,
That he may abide with you forever,
Ev'n the Spirit of truth.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

SCRIPTURE LESSONS

1 John 3:1-3

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

Jeremiah 18:1-8

The word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord: "Come, go down to the potter's house, and there I will let you hear my words." So I went down to the potter's house, and there he was working at his wheel. The vessel he was making of clay was spoiled in the potter's hand, and he reworked it into another vessel, as seemed good to him. Then the word of the Lord came to me:

Can I not do with you, O house of Israel, just as this potter has done? says the Lord. Just like the clay in the potter's hand, so are you in my hand, O house of Israel. At one moment I may declare concerning a nation or a kingdom, that I will pluck up and break down and destroy it, but if that nation, concerning which I have spoken, turns from its evil, I will change my mind about the disaster that I intended to bring on it.

One: This is the Word of God; for the People of God.
All: Thanks be to God.

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

from Belonging to God: A First Catechism

All: That I belong to God, who loves me. Amen.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

O, Clap Your Hands

Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872–1958), Text: Psalm 47

O, clap your hands, all ye people;

Shout unto God with the voice of triumph.

For the Lord most high is terrible:

He is a great King over all the earth.

God is gone up with a shout,

The Lord with the sound of a trumpet.

Sing praises to God, sing praises;

Sing praises unto our King, sing praises;

For God is King of all the earth;

Sing ye praises everyone that hath understanding.

God reigneth over the heathen:

God sitteth upon the throne of his holiness.

Sing praises unto our King, sing praises.

* CHORAL RESPONSE

Christ, Whose Glory Fills the Skies • Keith Bissell (1912–1992)
Text by Charles Wesley (1707–1788)

Christ, whose glory fills the skies,
Christ, the true, the only Light,
Sun of righteousness, arise,
Triumph o'er the shades of night;
Dayspring from on high, be near;
Daystar, in my heart appear.

POSTLUDE

Choral-Improvisation on Victimae paschali
Charles Tournemire (1870–1939), trans. Maurice Duruflé

The ministry of music this morning is offered by:
The Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church Choir
Dr. Ryan Jackson, William S. Perper Director of Music and Fine Arts Ministries
Patrick Kreeger, Associate Organist

WORSHIP NOTES

The composer of the Anthem this morning, Thomas Tallis (1505–1585), figures prominently in the history of English church music and is widely considered to be one of England’s greatest early composers. Throughout his service to successive English monarchs, as organist and composer, Tallis managed to avoid the religious controversies raging around him between Protestantism and Roman Catholicism (though, like William Byrd, Tallis remained an “unreformed Roman Catholic” throughout his life). Tallis was capable of switching the style of his compositions to suit the different monarchs’ vastly different demands. During the reign of King Edward VI (1547–1553), it was mandated that all services be sung in English (as opposed to the traditional Latin), and that the choral music be brief and succinct, “to each syllable a plain and distinct note,” so as to be easily understood. “If Ye Love Me” is an elegant example of this new style of English anthem: featuring a clear setting of the text and restrained emotion, the piece remains incredibly expressive and distinctly the voice of Tallis.

The Postlude first came into existence as a fantastical improvisation based on the theme of one of the oldest Easter hymns, Victimae paschali laudes (“Christians, to the Paschal Victim, offer your praises”), which dates from the 11th century. This piece was improvised spontaneously by the great French organist Charles Tournemire for a recording session in 1930, and is based on the traditional Gregorian melody. In 1958, Tournemire’s student Maurice Duruflé undertook the painstaking task of writing out these recorded improvisations in musical notation. This job must have taken countless hours (especially considering there were no iPods!), but Duruflé’s devotion and effort ultimately resulted in several exciting and innovative additions to the organ repertoire.

Today: CREDO Returns, with Four Prophets in Tow

Our popular Adult Education series, CREDO: Essentials of Christian Theology, is back for its sixth year. Beginning today, and for the next three Sundays, our pastors will discuss four of the major Hebrew prophets. The series will consider the wisdom the prophets contributed in their own time, and what they have to say to us today. Executive Pastor Charlene Han Powell starts the series at 12:30 pm in the Corning Logan Room, with Isaiah. See the upcoming schedule at fapc.org/learning.

Today: Organ Recital by Patrick Kreeger

At 1 pm Associate Organist Patrick Kreeger will present a free recital on the Sanctuary's mighty Austin pipe organ. This performance is presented in partial fulfillment of Patrick's doctoral degree at The Juilliard School and will feature works by Hakim, J.S. Bach, Duruflé and others.

Next Sunday: Interfaith Fellowship with Temple Emanu-El

Join us next Sunday (April 22) as we welcome our friends from Temple Emanu-El for a morning of interfaith fellowship. We will gather in Bonnell Hall at 9:30 am for breakfast and conversations about faith. Over coffee, eggs and bagels, we will share with one another the specific traditions and practices that are most meaningful to us as Christians and Jews. We'll look for the common themes of our faith, and explore the intriguing distinctions. Afterward, Rabbi Joshua Davidson will be our guest preacher for worship at 11 am in the Sanctuary. (There will be no early service next Sunday.) If you plan to attend the breakfast, please RSVP to Jaime Staehle (jstaehle@fapc.org) by end of day Wednesday so that we are sure to have enough food!
