

FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

JULY 1, 2018 • 10:00 AM

The healing of a bleeding woman, Catacombs of Marcellinus and Peter, Rome

THIS IS GOD'S HOUSE. ALL ARE WELCOME.

WELCOME TO FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Whether you are visiting for the first time, or are a longtime member, we are blessed to have you with us.

The cover of this bulletin reads, “This Is God’s House. All Are Welcome.” We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God’s kingdom. We don’t all look or act alike; God knows we don’t all think alike. We don’t all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, we worship together as one.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional (very Presbyterian) ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang. Yet, in our preaching and our prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of the modern world. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

After the service, please stick around. Take a tour of the church. Have a cup of coffee with us. Introduce yourself to one of our clergy. There are tons of opportunities here to feed your soul and expand your spirit. Try one out. You never know—you just might be home!

Scott Black Johnston
Senior Pastor

If You Are New Here

Please fill out the Welcome card you will find in your pew. (The ushers can also provide one.) Place the card in the offering plate, hand it to an usher, or drop it off at the Visitors Table (inside the Fifth Avenue entrance). You may also complete the Welcome card online at fapc.org/welcome. The folks at the Visitors Table can provide you with information about our ministries and programs, volunteer opportunities, and the history of this congregation, which has served New York City since 1808. We also invite you on a guided tour of the church, starting from the rear of the Sanctuary shortly after the service.

These May Help During the Service

If you would like a large-print bulletin or a hearing-enhancement device, please ask an usher. You may return the hearing-enhancement device to the rear of the Chapel or Sanctuary after the service.

Welcoming Children

Children are always welcome! The ushers can provide a worship bag or children’s Bible to keep your child engaged. If you need to step out to attend to your child, we invite you to use our Family Room, located at the north end of the Gallery, just outside the Sanctuary (check the map on the back of the bulletin for the location). We also provide childcare for infants and toddlers from 9 am until 11:30 am, downstairs in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center. Learn more about our Family Ministries at fapc.org/grow.

If You Are in Need of Prayer

Deacons (wearing white stoles) are available to pray with you after the service. Your prayers are confidential unless you request they be shared with our Congregational Care staff. You may also complete a prayer request card (available in the pews and at the entrances) and place it in the offering plate or hand to an usher. You may submit prayer requests online at fapc.org/pray.

Help With Parking

We have a parking arrangement with the garage at 51 W. 56th St. For $16, you may park Monday–Friday from 5 pm –12 am, or anytime until 1 am on Saturday, Sunday and holidays (12 hours maximum). Ask for discount coupons at the 55th Street entrance.

Worship Resources Online

You will find information about future worship services (including the bulletin for the upcoming Sunday) at fapc.org/worship. Recorded sermons are available at fapc.org/sermons and via podcast on iTunes. This morning’s Prayers of the People can be found at fapc.org/pray.

ORDER OF WORSHIP

As the Prelude begins, we invite you into a period of quiet reflection as we prepare for worship.

Please silence all electronic devices and do not take flash photos during the service.

PRELUDE

O Mensch, beweine deine Sünde groß
("O humankind, bewail thy sins so great")
J.S. Bach (1685–1750)

* CALL TO WORSHIP

Deacon Mae Cheng-PaVon

One: We gather as the faithful of God;
we come to listen to what God has to say to us.

All: God has invited us to this place;
may our faces reflect our hopes and our hearts.

One: We gather as the faithful of God,
people of the new covenant of hope and promise.

All: We boldly enter into the presence of God,
hoping to be transformed into new people.

One: We gather as the faithful of God,
our fears melting away in the heart of God.

All: We come to share in the freedom of the Spirit;
we come to praise God's holy name.

One: Let us worship God.

* HYMN 645

Sing Praise to God Who Reigns Above

* CALL TO CONFESSION

Morgan King

* PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
In your mercy, forgive what we have been,
help us amend what we are, and direct what we shall be,
so that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your holy name.

Silent Reflection and Confession

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Rev. Dr. Charlene Han Powell

SOLO

St. Ludmilla: Aria, "Give Ear, Ye People!"
Antonín Dvořák (1841–1904)

Give ear, ye people! One is our God;
 And one the teaching, heav'nly and true.
 And from the Cross alone is light,
 From sin and darkness shall ye be awaken'd,
 And ye shall then live unto God forever.

Now has the true, the only Light been revealed.
 Here is the Cross, before it fall and worship.
 Here is the Cross, the Cross of Christ,
 before it fall and worship.

Give ear, ye people! One is our God;
 One is the teaching, divine and true.
 And from the Cross alone is light.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Mark 5:24b-34

A large crowd followed him and pressed in on him. Now there was a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years. She had endured much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had; and she was no better, but rather grew worse. She had heard about Jesus, and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, for she said, "If I but touch his clothes, I will be made well." Immediately her hemorrhage stopped; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease. Immediately aware that power had gone forth from him, Jesus turned about in the crowd and said, “Who touched my clothes?” And his disciples said to him, “You see the crowd pressing in on you; how can you say, ‘Who touched me?’” He looked all around to see who had done it. But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling, fell down before him, and told him the whole truth. He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease.”

One: This is the Word of God; for the People of God.
All: Thanks be to God.

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Hebrews 4

We do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, we have one who, in every respect, has been tested as we are,
yet without sin.
Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness,
so that we may receive mercy, and find grace,
to help in time of need. Amen.

INVITATION TO THE LORD’S TABLE

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

One: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

One: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them to the Lord.

One: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Holy God, we praise you.

Let the heavens be joyful, and the earth be glad.

We bless you for creating the whole world, for your promises to your people Israel, and for Jesus Christ, in whom your fullness dwells.

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God in the Bless - ed is he who comes in the pow - er and the might, Heav'n and earth are the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the full high of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Born of Mary, he shares our life. Eating with sinners, he welcomes us.

Guiding his children, he leads us. Visiting the sick, he heals us.

Dying on the cross, he saves us. Rising from the dead, he gives new life.

Living with you, he prays for us. Great is the mystery of faith:

Christ has died; Christ is ris - en; Christ will come a - gain.
Christ has died; Christ is ris - en; Christ will come a - gain.

With thanksgiving we take this bread and this cup and proclaim the death and resurrection of our Lord.

Receive our sacrifice of praise.

Pour out your Holy Spirit upon us, that this meal may be a communion in the body and blood of our Lord.

Make us one with Christ and with all who share this feast.

Unite us in faith, encourage us with hope, inspire us to love, that we may serve as your faithful disciples until we feast at your table in glory.

We praise you, eternal God, through Christ your Word made flesh, in the holy and life-giving Spirit, now and forever.

COMMUNION OF THE PEOPLE

COMMUNION SOLO

Repentir (“O Divine Redeemer”) • Charles Gounod (1818–1893)

Ah! turn me not away, receive me, tho' unworthy!
Hear thou my cry, behold, Lord, my distress!
Answer me from thy throne, haste thee, Lord, to mine aid,
Thy pity show in my deep anguish!
Let not the sword of vengeance smite me,
Tho' righteous thine anger, O Lord!
Shield me in danger, O regard me! On thee, Lord, alone will I call.
O Divine Redeemer! O Divine Redeemer!
I pray thee, grant me pardon, and remember not my sins!
Forgive me, O divine Redeemer!
Night gathers round my soul; fearful I cry to thee;
Come to mine aid, O Lord! Haste thee, Lord, haste to help me!
Hear my cry, save me, Lord, in thy mercy;
Hear my cry! Come and save me, O Lord!
O, divine Redeemer! I pray thee, grant me pardon,
And remember not, O Lord, my sins!
Save, in the day of retribution,
from Death shield thou me, O my God!
O, divine Redeemer, have mercy! Help me, my Savior!

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

* HYMN 354

* BENEDICTION

POSTLUDE

Fugue in E-flat Major, BWV 552 • J.S. Bach

The ministry of music this morning is offered by:
Patrick Kreeger, Associate Organist • Clayton Brown, Soloist

WORSHIP NOTES

The prodigious compositional output by Czech composer Antonín Dvořák includes works from small piano miniatures to chamber music to his symphonies, many of which require tremendous instrumental forces to perform. Dvořák's vocal music is often considered peripheral; however, its quality remains parallel to his instrumental works. In particular, folk melodies from his homeland are implemented in many works, such as his third oratorio, Saint Ludmila. While operas often employ secular themes, elaborate costumes and scenery, an oratorio is simpler in appearance—lacking costumes and scenery—and is based on a sacred topic. Saint Ludmila conveys the story of a couple spreading the news of Christianity while serving as missionaries. Inspired by choirs while visiting England, Dvořák completed this work in 1886.

The text of Panis Angelicus, written by Thomas Aquinas, has been set to music multiple times. Translated as “Bread of Angels,” Panis Angelicus is one of César Franck's most heavenly sounding works. The sung melody enhances the text—its gently falling line can be considered symbolic of bread falling from Heaven. Compared to other settings of Panis Angelicus by various composers, Franck's is arguably the most popular.

Charles Gounod was a composer of hundreds of songs. “O, Divine Redeemer!” was composed in 1893. He died soon after writing this song. While many composers choose previously written text for songs, Gounod had complete control of this piece: not only did he write the music, he wrote the text as well. “O, Divine Redeemer” conveys the simplicity found in many works by Gounod, but there is a spiritual and expressive depth to this song, making it one of the most highly regarded works from France during this time.

The Bridge is a New York-based nonprofit that serves some of the city's most vulnerable citizens with a range of social service programs, including mental health and substance abuse treatment, housing, vocational training, healthcare, education and creative arts therapies. Approximately 50 clients participate in the creative arts program. This marks the fourth time that the church has featured artists from The Bridge. Representatives of the organization, along with many of the artists, will be our guests for a reception in the Chesnut Gallery the following Sunday (July 15). Self Discovery will remain on view until Labor Day.

Call for Volunteers: Vacation Bible School

If you are interested in helping us make Vacation Bible School a success, we can use you! Help us create a fun learning space in the Christian Education Center during the week of Aug. 6. We also need volunteers to lead activities, serve snacks and other duties during the five mornings when VBS is in session (Aug. 13–17). Contact: Jaime Staehle (jstaehle@fapc.org, 212.247.0490 ext 3003).

Have You Registered for Vacation Bible School?

“Shipwrecked: Rescued by Jesus” is the theme of Vacation Bible School 2018, coming up Aug. 13–17 in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center. All children from age 3 (and potty-trained) to entering fifth-graders are invited to a weeklong adventure filled with sciency-fun gizmos, team-building games, cool Bible songs and tasty treats. VBS meets from 9:30 am until 12 pm each day. Church membership is not required, so invite neighbors and friends to come along! Online registration is at fapc.org/vbs, or contact Jaime Staehle (jstaehle@fapc.org).

This Fall: Bereavement Support at Fifth Avenue

This fall Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church will again offer a 10-week Bereavement Support Group for persons struggling with grief and the aftermath of loss. The group will be led by Ellen Theg, a licensed psychotherapist and experienced bereavement counselor. It will meet on Wednesday evenings from Sept. 26 through Dec. 5. The cost is $120 for the full program, and enrollment is limited to 10 persons. To register, contact Lance Hurst (lhurst@fapc.org, 212.247.0490 ext 3007).

Summer Clearance: Donate Your Goods to the Bazaar!

It's never too early to donate merchandise for the Women's Association's Holiday Bazaar! We will gratefully accept your donations all year long. If you have new or gently used clothing, handbags and accessories, jewelry and stationery, artwork and photography, crystal and table linens, please leave your donations with the 55th Street reception desk. No books, furniture, electronics or kitchenware, please! The 2018 Bazaar is happening Thursday and Friday, Nov. 1–2.

Announcing the Gotto Lecture Series and Congregational Book-Read

We are delighted to announce that Jonathan Haidt, a social psychologist at New York University and best-selling author, will inaugurate the Anita and Antonio Gotto Lecture Series on Thursday, Oct. 25. The lecture series is made possible by a generous contribution from the Gottos to the Generation to Generation Capital Campaign. Haidt is the author of The Righteous Mind: Why Good People Are Divided by Politics and Religion (2012). His forthcoming book, The Coddling of the American Mind: How Good Intentions and Bad Ideas Are Setting Up a Generation for Failure (co-authored by Greg Lukianoff), is the selection for our congregational book-read. The book, now available for pre-order, is due from Penguin Publishing Group on Sept. 4.

GETTING CONNECTED

Adult Education

Each spring and fall, we offer courses in theology and Scripture, spirituality, social issues and other disciplines. The curriculum includes visiting authors, interfaith dialogue and other events. The Employment Advisory program offers monthly seminars on career-related issues. All classes are free and open to all, with no registration required. Information on upcoming classes is available at fapc.org/learning.

Community Groups

Community groups provide opportunities for intimate fellowship within this large congregation. Many of our groups gather neighbors from a particular part of the city; others focus on spiritual questions particular to women, 20s/30s, 30s/40s, older adults, couples, new members, parents and the LGBTQ community. Many groups meet on Sunday mornings, and others during the week. Learn more (and find the group that's right for you) at fapc.org/community-groups. Contact: communitygroups@fapc.org.

Congregational Care

If you (or others you know in our community) are going through a difficult time, we are here for you. We have a team of dedicated staff and volunteers who are available for counseling, home and hospital visits, medical escorts and prayer. You may also submit prayer requests at fapc.org/pray. Contact: congregationalcare@fapc.org.

Family Ministries

Family Ministries brings together people of diverse backgrounds and families of all definitions to nurture healthy children and strong, faithful families. We offer Sunday School, Youth Group, Children's Choir, Little Lambs (programming for infants to toddlers), community groups for parents, FAPC-U (our college ministry), Vacation Bible School and special events all year long. Learn more (and register your child) at fapc.org/grow. Contact: familyministries@fapc.org.

Membership

Our new members classes provide an introduction to Christianity, the Presbyterian tradition and Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church. We welcome new members into the congregation during worship on the following Sunday. We also recognize long-term members with an annual reception, while the Legacy Circle honors those who have remembered the church in their wills and planned giving. Find out more about membership at fapc.org/members. Contact: membership@fapc.org.

Music + Arts

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church is home to a versatile program of arts in our worship and community life that endeavors to inspire, challenge and comfort all who encounter it, and to provide opportunities to share our artistic gifts. In addition to the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church Choir and Chamber Choir, we offer the FAPC Community Choir, an entry-level ensemble that meets on Thursday evenings for rehearsal and fellowship. Contact: music@fapc.org. Our Theatre Fellowship offers a mainstage production every spring, and staged readings, a cabaret and other events during the year. Contact: theatre@fapc.org. The Arts & Our Faith Committee sponsors exhibitions of art, history and photography in the Chesnut Gallery, often featuring work by members of the congregation.

Outreach & Mission Partners

Our Outreach programs rely on volunteers to serve the homeless and the homebound, the elderly and the underserved. The David B. Skinner Shelter operates 365 nights a year and is entirely volunteer-run. Meals on Heels meets every Saturday to prepare and deliver home-cooked meals to homebound neighbors. Other volunteer programs happen monthly or during special seasons of the year. FAPC Serves—our citywide, all-congregation day of service—takes place on a Saturday in the spring. Information on our volunteer programs and upcoming opportunities to serve are available online. Visit fapc.org/volunteer to sign up and serve.

We offer many volunteer opportunities through our mission partners:

The Bowery Mission	Jan Hus Presbyterian Church	Operation Exodus
The Bridge	& Neighborhood House	Parity
Church of Gethsemane	Ministry of Hope – Lesotho	Presbyterian Senior Services
Hands Along the Nile	Mission co-workers Cobbie &	Search and Care
Development Services	Dessa Palm – Philippines	West Side Federation for Senior
Holmes Presbyterian Camp	Mission co-workers Dan &	& Supportive Housing
& Conference Center	Elizabeth Turk – Madagascar	Womankind

Learn more about our mission partners at fapc.org/mission-partners. Contact: outreach@fapc.org.

Volunteering

Volunteering is one of the most important ways that Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church seeks to show that God's house is truly a place where all are welcome. Each week, members of this community serve as ushers and greeters, host in the David B. Skinner Shelter, venture out into the neighborhood to offer meals to the homebound, provide comfort and support to the elderly, among many other activities. To learn more about our diverse volunteer opportunities, and how you can join in, visit fapc.org/volunteer or email volunteer@fapc.org.

Women's Association

The Women's Association invites the women (and men!) of the congregation to our program of education, service, prayer and benevolence. Our programs are listed every Sunday in the bulletin's Calendar of Events. Contact: wassoc@fapc.org.

Young Adults

NEXT Ministries is a diverse group of curious, adventurous people who are centered in our faith. We offer a number of programs to make you feel at home—our Sunday afternoon discussion group, service projects, social events, retreats and more. Join us! We're online at fapc.org/NEXT and on Instagram @nextatfapc. Contact: nextministries@fapc.org.

From time to time we may be taking video or photography in the Sanctuary, Kirkland Chapel and other parts of the church house (interior and exterior). By your presence, you grant Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church unrestricted rights to use and publish, transmit or telecast images or likeness that may be taken of you for use in communication related to the church. Please contact Tim Palmer Curl, director of communications and development (tpalmer@fapc.org), if you have questions or concerns.

Follow Our Summer Instagram Project

Following the success of last year's "100 Things I Love about FAPC," we have launched a new campaign for the summer. "Why We Serve" focuses on the many, diverse service opportunities at Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church (most of them active all summer long), and celebrates the faithful volunteers who keep them rolling. Follow us on Instagram at @fapc_nyc, and share your own volunteer stories, using the hashtag #WhyWeServe.

Visit Us During the Week

The Sanctuary, Kirkland Chapel and Columbarium are open seven days a week for prayer and reflection.
