

FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

TENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

JULY 29, 2018 • 10:00 AM

Rochelle Blumenfeld, Gathering II, 2010

THIS IS GOD'S HOUSE. ALL ARE WELCOME.

WELCOME TO FIFTH AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Whether you are visiting for the first time, or are a longtime member, we are blessed to have you with us.

The cover of this bulletin reads, “This Is God’s House. All Are Welcome.” We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God’s kingdom. We don’t all look or act alike; God knows we don’t all think alike. We don’t all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, we worship together as one.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional (very Presbyterian) ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We sing many of the same hymns our grandparents sang. Yet, in our preaching and our prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of the modern world. I hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

After the service, please stick around. Take a tour of the church. Have a cup of coffee with us. Introduce yourself to one of our clergy. There are tons of opportunities here to feed your soul and expand your spirit. Try one out. You never know—you just might be home!

Scott Black Johnston
Senior Pastor

If You Are New Here

Please fill out the Welcome card you will find in your pew. (The ushers can also provide one.) Place the card in the offering plate, hand it to an usher, or drop it off at the Visitors Table (inside the Fifth Avenue entrance). You may also complete the Welcome card online at fapc.org/welcome. The folks at the Visitors Table can provide you with information about our ministries and programs, volunteer opportunities, and the history of this congregation, which has served New York City since 1808. We also invite you on a guided tour of the church, starting from the rear of the Sanctuary shortly after the service.

These May Help During the Service

If you would like a large-print bulletin or a hearing-enhancement device, please ask an usher. You may return the hearing-enhancement device to the rear of the Chapel or Sanctuary after the service.

Welcoming Children

Children are always welcome! The ushers can provide a worship bag or children’s Bible to keep your child engaged. If you need to step out to attend to your child, we invite you to use our Family Room, located at the north end of the Gallery, just outside the Sanctuary (check the map on the back of the bulletin for the location). We also provide childcare for infants and toddlers from 9 am until 11:30 am, downstairs in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center. Learn more about our Family Ministries at fapc.org/grow.

If You Are in Need of Prayer

Deacons (wearing white stoles) are available to pray with you after the service. Your prayers are confidential unless you request they be shared with our Congregational Care staff. You may also complete a prayer request card (available in the pews and at the entrances) and place it in the offering plate or hand to an usher. You may submit prayer requests online at fapc.org/pray.

Help With Parking

We have a parking arrangement with the garage at 51 W. 56th St. For $16, you may park Monday through Friday from 5 pm–12 am, or anytime until 1 am on Saturday, Sunday and holidays (12 hours maximum). Ask for discount coupons at the 55th Street entrance.

Worship Resources Online

You will find information about future worship services (including the bulletin for the upcoming Sunday) at fapc.org/worship. Recorded sermons are available at fapc.org/sermons and via podcast on iTunes. This morning’s Prayers of the People can be found at fapc.org/pray.

ORDER OF WORSHIP

As the Prelude begins, we invite you into a period of quiet reflection as we prepare for worship.
Please silence all electronic devices and do not take flash photos during the service.

All: God, today we cry out for peace, hope and renewal for us and for this world.

* PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

In your mercy, forgive what we have been, help us amend what we are, and direct what we shall be, so that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

SOLO

Five Mystical Songs: III. Love Bade Me Welcome
Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872–1958)

Love bade me welcome: yet my soul drew back,
Guilty of dust and sin.
But quick-eye'd Love, observing me grow slack
From my first entrance in,
Drew nearer to me, sweetly questioning,
If I lack'd anything.
A guest, I answer'd, worthy to be here:
Love said, You shall be he.
I the unkind, ungrateful? Ah, my dear,
I cannot look on thee.
Love took my hand, and smiling did reply,
Who made the eyes but I?
Truth, Lord, but I have marr'd them: let my shame
Go where it doth deserve.
And know you not, says Love, who bore the blame?
My dear, then I will serve.
You must sit down, says Love, and taste my meat:
So I did sit and eat.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

SCRIPTURE LESSONS

Acts 18:9-17

One night the Lord said to Paul in a vision, “Do not be afraid, but speak and do not be silent; for I am with you, and no one will lay a hand on you to harm you, for there are many in this city who are my people.” He stayed there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them. But when Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews made a united attack on Paul and brought him before the tribunal. They said, “This man is persuading people to worship God in ways that are contrary to the law.” Just as Paul was about to speak, Gallio said to the Jews, “If it were a matter of crime or serious villainy, I would be justified in accepting the complaint of you Jews; but since it is a matter of questions about words and names and your own law, see to it yourselves; I do not wish to be a judge of these matters.” And he dismissed them from the tribunal. Then all of them seized Sosthenes, the official of the synagogue, and beat him in front of the tribunal. But Gallio paid no attention to any of these things.

1 Corinthians 11:17-22

Now in the following instructions I do not commend you, because when you come together it is not for the better but for the worse. For, to begin with, when you come together as a church, I hear that there are divisions among you; and to some extent I believe it. Indeed, there have to be factions among you, for only so will it become clear who among you are genuine. When you come together, it is not really to eat the Lord’s supper. For when the time comes to eat, each of you goes ahead with your own supper, and one goes hungry and another becomes drunk. What! Do you not have homes to eat and drink in? Or do you show contempt for the church of God and humiliate those who have nothing? What should I say to you? Should I commend you? In this matter I do not commend you!

2 Corinthians 5:16-21

From now on, therefore, we regard no one from a human point of view; even though we once knew Christ from a human point of view, we know him no longer in that way. So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new! All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting the message of reconciliation to us. So we are ambassadors for Christ, since God is making his appeal through us; we entreat you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

One: This is the Word of God; for the People of God.

All: Thanks be to God.

WORSHIP NOTES

Born in South Carolina, Carlisle Floyd was the son of a Methodist minister and composed many works reflecting life in the South. Pilgrimage (today's Offertory Solo) exists in two versions: voice and piano, and voice and orchestra. Bible verses are used for each of the five movements in this set. While the piano accompaniment is sparse and atmospheric, the vocal line is tremendously intense and melodic—quite appropriate for movement 5, “I Am Persuaded”—the text from Romans 8 conveying the inseparability of God and God's children.

Ralph Vaughan Williams' “Love Bade Me Welcome” is the third movement in his Five Mystical Songs set. The text, by the English poet and Anglican priest George Herbert, is constant. Vaughan Williams wrote four different instrumentations of this work: 1) piano solo, 2) piano and string quintet, 3) wind ensemble and 4) orchestra. The accompaniment is fresh and supportive of the vocal line. Vaughan Williams employs numerous consecutive fifth passages, giving the accompaniment a unique texture while also recalling music from earlier times, when consecutive fifth intervals were more common. The overall theme of this movement is welcoming and hospitable. We are welcomed by love despite our sinful past. Thanks to Christ's crucifixion, we may be welcomed, comforted and united by love.

Welcome Back, Chris Romine

Chris Romine returns to the pulpit this morning for the first time since gathering a new worshipping community on June 8. As Fifth Avenue's "mustard seed pastor," Chris has been at work since January shepherding a community of New Yorkers who are looking for a spiritual home outside of the traditional church. His new congregation meets at the LGBT Community Center (208 W. 13th St.) in the West Village. They will gather next month at 5 pm on Aug. 12 and Aug. 26, and on the second and fourth Sundays thereafter.

Tonight: Our Monthly Ministry at The Bowery Mission

Fifth Avenue volunteers will gather this evening for our monthly worship and dinner service at the historic Bowery Mission on the Lower East Side. We invite you to join us! Worship begins at 5 pm (please plan to arrive by 4:45). Afterward we will serve dinner to residents and guests of the mission, which has assisted homeless and hungry New Yorkers since 1879. Directions are available at the reception desk and at fapc.org/bowery. Contact: Jeanne Lehman (bowerymission@fapc.org).

Starting Tomorrow: Vacation Bible School Needs Your Help!

Help us get ready for one of our biggest weeks of the year! Vacation Bible School is coming up Aug. 13–17. We'll be decorating the Christian Education Center on three afternoons—tomorrow (July 30), from 1:30 to 4:30 pm; Tuesday, Aug. 7, 1:30 to 4:30 pm; and Sunday, Aug. 12, 11:30 am to 1:30 pm. We're also having our final volunteer meeting on Aug. 12. If you'd like to be part of Vacation Bible School, we are looking for snack leaders, crew leaders (similar to a camp counselor) and a recreation leader. Contact: Jaime Staehle (jstaehle@fapc.org, 212.247.0490 ext 3003).

Wednesday: Pizza with Pastors

Our second afternoon of Pizza with Pastors is happening at 12 pm Wednesday (Aug. 1) in the Romeyn Room (on the fifth floor of the Church House). All are invited to this summertime fellowship event. It's an opportunity to spend relaxed time with our pastors and staff and get to know one another better. Our third (and last) Pizza with Pastors is set for Wednesday, Aug. 22. Please RSVP to Morgan King (mking@fapc.org, 212.247.0490 ext 3005).

Next Sunday: The Role of Shelter in Community

Next Sunday (Aug. 5) Fifth Avenue will observe Homelessness and Affordable Housing Sunday. One of our new parish associates, the Rev. Kellie Picallo, will preach that morning. Following worship, we invite you to a special presentation, "The Role of Shelter in Community." Catherine Trapani, executive director of Homeless Services United, will discuss the city's efforts to address homelessness and how nonprofit providers are making progress on the ground. Homeless Services United is a New York-based membership organization representing nonprofit homeless services providers. Trapani's presentation will take place at 11:30 am in Jones Auditorium.

Have You Registered for Vacation Bible School?

"Shipwrecked: Rescued by Jesus" is the theme of Vacation Bible School 2018, coming up Aug. 13-17 in the LaDane Williamson Christian Education Center. All children from age 3 (and potty-trained) to entering fifth-graders are invited to a weeklong adventure filled with sciency-fun gizmos, team-building games, cool Bible songs and tasty treats. VBS meets from 9:30 am until 12 pm each day. Church membership is not required, so invite neighbors and friends to come along! Online registration is at fapc.org/vbs, or contact Jaime Staehle (jstaehle@fapc.org, 212.247.0490 ext 3003).

GETTING CONNECTED

Adult Education

Each spring and fall, we offer courses in theology and Scripture, spirituality, social issues and other disciplines. The curriculum includes visiting authors, interfaith dialogue and other events. The Employment Advisory program offers monthly seminars on career-related issues. All classes are free and open to all, with no registration required. Information on upcoming classes is available at fapc.org/learning.

Community Life

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church offers an array of opportunities for community fellowship. We gather for congregation-wide events (such as Homecoming and the traditional Thanksgiving luncheon) several times a year. Community groups offer an opportunity for more intimate engagement within this large congregation. Many of our groups gather neighbors from a particular part of the city; others focus on spiritual questions particular to women, 20s/30s, 30s/40s, older adults, couples, new members, parents and the LGBTQ community. Our community clubs—City Club, CouplesPlus! and the Fifth Avenue Fellowship Club—gather for dinners and cocktail parties, museum and theater outings, and other social events throughout the year. Learn more about all of these opportunities at fapc.org/community. Contact: communitylife@fapc.org.

Congregational Care

If you (or others you know in our congregation) are going through a difficult time, we are here for you. We have a team of dedicated staff and volunteers who are available for counseling, home and hospital visits, medical escorts and prayer. You may also submit prayer requests at fapc.org/pray. Contact: congregationalcare@fapc.org.

We offer Sunday School, Youth Group, Children's Choir, Little Lambs (programming for infants to toddlers), community groups for parents, FAPC-U (our college ministry), Vacation Bible School and special events all year long. Learn more (and register your child) at fapc.org/grow. Contact: familyministries@fapc.org.

Membership

Our new members classes provide an introduction to Christianity and the Presbyterian tradition. "Believing and Belonging," the only class required for membership, provides an orientation to Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church. Volunteering Volunteering is one of the most important ways that Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church seeks to show that God's house is truly a place where all are welcome. Each week, members of this community serve as ushers and greeters, host in the David B. Skinner Shelter, venture out into the neighborhood to offer meals to the homebound, provide comfort and support to the elderly, and work with the underserved of New York City. To learn more about our diverse volunteer opportunities, and how you may join in, visit fapc.org/volunteer or email volunteer@fapc.org.

About the Cover

Rochelle Blumenfeld, Gathering II, 2010. Rochelle Blumenfeld is an award-winning abstract expressionist from Pittsburgh. Her work is represented in many private and public collections, including the Carnegie Institute Museum of Art. "I like the act, the physicality of painting," she writes. "The shapes I create bend and twist, push and pull as people do. Although my works are sometimes non-representational, they like the world around us are composed of motion, light and space."
